N O T E

As in previous volumes, this one includes mature individuals who lived at some time in their lives in Vacaville or its nearby environs.

Unlike previous compilations it is not limited to the Vacaville Reporter as a source. Because of the unavailability of the microfilm record for that publication for the last quarter of the year 1982, I have winnowed a miniscule number of citations from Fairfield's The Daily Republic for inclusion herein. They are identifiable by the initials DR before the date of publication.
